Week of Dec. 29-30, 2018

Parish Support	$2,366.00
Offertory (+ Christmas)	$1,044.65

Office Closed – The parish office will be closed next Wednesday.

Sucker Sale – There will be another sucker sale this weekend, with the profits going to help with the purchase of our new vacuum cleaner. Prizes will be given according to the color of the sucker's stick.

Healing Rosary – The rosary will now be prayed on Mondays at 7:00 p.m. in the gathering space at church.

Remove Decorations – Next Sunday after mass we will be taking down the Christmas decorations. Everyone is invited to stay and help.

Help Needed – We need someone with a plow on a truck to plow after new and/or old ice buildup in the handicapped areas and as close to the front of church as possible. This will help avoid the icy treachery mess we had last week and help prevent broken bones!

Mass Intentions – We again have openings for those who wish to have masses offered for family members or loved ones. Please contact the parish office if you would like to schedule some. The offering is $10 per mass.

Social – Thanks to the volunteers who are serving the social this weekend. May this inspire more of you to sign up to share your goodies with your parish family.

Fair Trade – Fair Trade items will be sold the weekend of Jan. 19-20.

Visit with Fr. Ed – If anyone would like to invite Fr. Ed for a visit or dinner, to bless your home, or to visit someone who is homebound, he is available on Fridays and Saturdays to do this. Please call him or the parish office to extend him an invitation.

The Education Committee needs at least 2 more members. If you would be willing to give some of your time to help the religious education of our parish youth, please call the parish office or Casey Meidl.

Greeting Cards and 2018 Calendars – The Sisters at Manitowoc use the pictures from greeting cards and old calendars for craft projects with their elderly. There is a box in the gathering space for any you may wish to donate.

Food for Thought

Empathy(n.) – The quality or process of entering, through imagination, into another’s feelings or motives.

Individuals’ acts and thoughts are based on past or present life experiences, conditions, and events. Few of us have the same experiences or respond to them in the same way.

Do not judge someone unless you have walked a mile (or more) in their shoes.
